

Alice Marie Harris

September 10, 1932 - April 12, 2017

Alice Marie Harris was the eighth child born to Mary Lee Gaither Harris and Henry Dennis Harris, Sr. on September 10, 1932, in the New Herman Community of Bedford County. She was named for her eternal aunt, Alice Luvice Gaither Haggard, fondly called Aunt Dutch.

Despite being seriously ill as a child, surviving a stroke and polio, Polly lived life to the fullest, giving her family and friends great joy. Even though she did not hold any professional degrees, she was a dedicated nurse when her family was in need, teacher and caregiver to many nieces and family, and family historian. Her photographic memory of names, dates, and events was truly remarkable. She was always a favorite to draw as a partner in the competitive family card games. Her wit and simple humor will be remembered by all who knew her.

She was a faithful member of Eastview Baptist Church in Shelbyville, and she loved her church family.

Polly lost her six month battle with cancer at the age of 84. She died peacefully at Glen Oaks Convalescent Center in Shelbyville on April 12, 2017. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by four brothers, Henry Dennis Harris, Jr., Cecil Edwin Harris, Leonard Franklin Harris, and Earl Gaither Harris; three sisters, Ruth Harris Adams, Claudia Harris Gleaves, and Sarah Harris Faulin. She is survived by one sister, Janice Harris Carlton, sister in law, Annie T. Harris, and many nieces and nephews.

A special thanks, from her family, to Teresa Jones Smith, Carolyn Reale, and nurse Andrew Feldhaus, for your love and care.

Funeral services will be 2 PM Friday, April 14, 2017, at Feldhaus Memorial Chapel. Reverend Kenny Collins will officiate, with burial to follow in Rosebank Cemetery

The family will receive visitors Friday 12 noon until service time at the funeral home.

Feldhaus Memorial Chapel is assisting the family with arrangements.
