“ I was saddened to learn about Becky passing. Becky and the McCormick family treated us as family in a very closed community when we moved there in 1984. I have nothing but fond memories of Becky and how she treated me and my family. We wish for peace and solace for Mitchell and the entire family.

“ So sorry to learn of the passing of Becky. She was a dear Sister that would give you anything she could. Always remembered to bring me a gift from vacations that she and Mitchel so much enjoyed. They enjoyed following the Bluegrass Festivals around the Southeast states. Now she can rest, breathe sweet Heaven and the Angels songs as they play the Heavenly Harps. Love Ya Becky!!!

We are very sorry to hear of Cousin Becky's passing. I remember her most as we were playing house as kids, and she would say " you must work at the woolen mill" as her dad did in Springfield. Our condolences go out to the family. Bill Jackson
