

Berle Lee Shavers

April 2, 1953 - November 1, 2023

Berle Lee Shavers, a man of faith, a devoted family member, and a skilled electrician, passed away peacefully on November 1, 2023, in his hometown of Shelbyville, TN. Born on April 2, 1953, in the same town, Berle lived a life filled with love, service, and a deep appreciation for the simple pleasures of life.

Berle was a man of many talents. He was a skilled electrician, having spent many years working at Cosmo Lab. His colleagues remember him as a diligent worker who was always ready to lend a hand. His handy nature extended beyond the workplace. He was known to be the go-to person in his family and community for any electrical issues, always willing to help with a smile on his face.

In his free time, Berle had a deep love for golf. He could often be found on the greens, perfecting his swing and enjoying the camaraderie of his fellow golfers. His love for the outdoors also led him to manage his own duck and turkey farm, where he spent countless hours tending to his animals and enjoying the tranquility of nature. Berle was also a Harley Davidson enthusiast. He loved the thrill of riding and the sense of freedom it gave him.

Berle was a man of deep faith. He was a regular attendee of Calvary Baptist Church, where he was known for his thoughtful and compassionate nature. His faith was a guiding force in his life, providing him with strength and solace in times of need.

Berle's family was the cornerstone of his life. He is survived by his sisters, Kathy(Richard) Hise, Sharon Loe, and Lynnettee Fairweather. He was a beloved uncle to Dana(Bill) Lackey and many other nieces and nephews. Berle is preceded in death by his brother Darrell Shavers. Berle's family will remember him as a loving and supportive figure, always there to offer guidance, share a laugh, or lend a helping hand.

Berle was a man who lived his life with a deep sense of purpose. His faith-filled nature, thoughtful demeanor, and handy skills made him a cherished member of his family, workplace, and community. He will be remembered for his love of life, his dedication to his work, and his unwavering commitment to his faith and family.

In remembering Berle, we celebrate a life well-lived. His legacy will live on in the hearts of those he touched with his kindness, his wisdom, and his love. His memory will be a beacon of light, guiding us through the challenges of life with the same strength, resilience, and faith that he embodied throughout his life.

Berle Lee Shavers, a man of faith, a loving family member, a skilled electrician, and a lover of life, will be deeply missed. His memory will forever be etched in the hearts of those who had the privilege of knowing him.
