

Mrs. Betty Jean Lynch

September 30, 1952 - February 19, 2016

Mrs. Betty Jean Lynch, age 63, of Shelbyville, passed away Friday, February 19, 2016, at Heritage Medical Center after a brief illness.

Her children and grandchildren will gather for a Memorial Service 4 PM Saturday, February 27, 2016, at Legends Restaurant in Shelbyville. Per her request, her remains were cremated.

She was born September 30, 1952, in Pennsylvania, to the late Betty and Gene Bartlebaugh. She was being taken care of and comforted by daughter Christy Coleman and son Eddie Coleman, in her final days.

Betty was a hard worker and did all she could to provide for her children. She retired from Tyson Foods in 2015, after working for the company 15 years. She would work hard all day, relax hard in the evening, and back up like clock work the next morning to do it all over again. Only declining health slowed her down. She enjoyed spending time with, and enjoying, her grandchildren. She was readily available to watch over and babysit them whenever she was needed.

She leaves nine children to cherish her memory: daughter, Tonya (Herminio) Herrera, son, Frank Allen, son, Thomas (Eileen) Allen, son, Jason (Sharon) Allen, son, Fernando Santos, son, Marcel Bartlebaugh, daughter, Christy Coleman, son, Eddie Coleman, and daughter, Pam Coleman; twenty seven grandchildren and one great great grandson; four sisters, Faith, Christen, Elsie, and Charlene; three brothers, Thomas, Martin, and Presley; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Feldhaus Memorial Chapel is assisting the family with the cremation.

“ Mom you had such a sweet soul
Sometimes too sweet
That's what I get into having such a great soul
I'm believing that everybody wants to do you right just like you did
You cared for everybody
You were there for everybody
Even when you were alone and nobody was there for you
I find myself in the same predicaments and I dislike it
You are so kind
It breaks my heart to know that you're gone
But when you came into my dream several years ago
I know you're happy with Jesus
And you not hurting anymore
But it breaks my heart that I don't have you
Because I want to be selfish and I want to have you
But I'm glad that you're with Jesus and I love you

“ Hello Mom.
Is the new year.
And I miss you just so much.
I have grown up a lot.
I'm super adulting.
Elijah's graduated high school early
He's so smart
I know your life was so hard
And innocence my childhood was just as hard
But what you figured it out
What you figured it out you tried your best
Elijah will go off to college
He's so responsible
He's the best son
Any mother could ask for
You would be so proud of your grandchild
I don't know if he'll ever come on this internet page and be able to read anything
But I hope one day he'll remember
What a good granny you tried your hardest to be
I'm sorry your life was so hard
And I didn't realize what being a single mom really entails
You have nine kids
Alone
I was number seven
By then
Do you were so wore out
You tried your hardest
That's why I learned from you
I only had the one child
I had to give that child everything I had in me
You could only give me what was left in you
But you did try your hardest
And I cry for you everyday
And I love you
And I miss you

*And most importantly I understand you
Where I was so young I didn't understand you
But I do now
And I miss you
And most importantly I'm appreciative of you trying your hardest no matter what
And if you didn't have anything to give you still gave your last
I'm sorry you died alone
I'm sorry that no one was there
And I love you
And I learned from you
And I miss you Mom*
