“ Bridget and I kept up all the time online until just 3 weeks ago, and I was not aware until just then of her illness. I was stunned to learn of her passing.

From all I have seen through her, Hudson, Emily, Evan and John are successful in their endeavors and were as a great a light in her life, as she was in theirs. She was loved and a light to all who knew her, even some of my friends and family. They only met her briefly, or knew her well online for a decade or more, introduced by me through online MSN Messenger chats and Facebook. I have known her since about 1999 through a mutual chat page a dozen of us met on, and, over years, we became good friends (even this year, we both still kept up with two others among that group).

I have followed Bridget's adventures and she mine for all the years since, and the wonderful life she and her four children have had in Liberty, Indiana, since moving there in July 2008. I even visited them all there in November 2009 (while on a test drive in my then new car to my nephew in Cincinnati, friends in Indianapolis and southeastern Ontario, and my brother then in Saratoga Springs, NY) ... a wonderful blended family and home, already decorated for Christmas in a quiet community.

From everything I have seen online since, they have all grown up in a safe and wonderful environment, a loving home, and great church community. As many have said in tributes, she had a smile, love, and inspiration for everyone she encountered in life. I miss my friend, and wish for peace and the love of her family and friends to console each other. Her shining light will go on through all of you. I have similar past (and present) family and friends who are a similar light to me in my life.

“ In Matthew chapter 5 verse 4, the scripture tells us "Blessed are they that mourn for they shall be comforted"

So very hard to believe someone so young has been called home to heaven. It seems though that there are a lot of younger Children of God leaving earth for a sweeter eternal life.

To Beverly and Belinda, I know how your heart aches for your sibling. Cling to each other and your memories. Your children, her nieces and nephews were blessed to love her and be loved by her.

Emily, Evan, Hudson, John, it's so difficult for your mother to leave you. No matter your age. I'm 62 years old and my momma just went to heaven. Knowing she is in heaven with Jesus, knowing He is holding her in His arms. She is in no more pain, she is not sick. I can tell by looking at all her pictures, and sweet comments, she loved you all with all her heart.

Billy and Nadine, no parent should have to lay to rest their child. Oh the heartache I saw in my momma when Mikie passed away. Daddy had left us 4 months and 26 days before. Giving up a spouse was entirely different. The pain more extreme. But, my precious mom found courage and comfort in Christ, God's word and surrounding herself with his pictures and family. My most heartfelt prayers and thoughts are with you both.

Focus on the Lord. When others slip away you will always have Him and your family.

God will, I promise help you get through the days ahead.

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: For the former things are passed away. Revelations 21:4

Our love, our thoughts and our prayers are with everyone of you.

*Dear Nadine and Bill, Hudson, Evan, Emily, and John,
We just heard about Bridget at church today. Then just now our pastor called with this information concerning the name of the funeral home. We are so so sorry. What a wonderful daughter you had, Nadine and Bill. I know she loved you very, very much. It was such a blessing to meet you when you were here once visiting when I stopped by. Hudson, Evan, Emily, and John, you had a beautiful and kind and loving Mother who adored you. She was so proud of you all and loved you with a passion. You already know that, but I saw that too in every conversation and time with your Mother.*

I do not have words to say or write. Our hearts are full of sorrow, but we all know where Bridget is now and that makes all the difference. I pray that the same loving Arms that welcomed her Home will embrace and comfort you all. You know that if we can serve you in any way, we are here. We have been praying for Bridget and you for many months and will be continuing to pray. Her example of faith and good will and forgiveness and love will bless you all of your lives. God bless you and keep you now and always.

*Lovingly,
Steve and Judy Kaiser*
