“ My sincere condolences go out to you and your family. It can be hard to find comfort in times like these. One thing that has personally brought me comfort is a verse found in God’s word the Bible at Isaiah 25:8 where it says that God “will swallow up death forever” and “will wipe away the tears from all faces”, just like a loving parent. May the hope God gives of a future resurrection on earth bring you comfort too. My heart goes out to your family.

“ I have know Carl for the past 19 years as he lived in the Clouse-Elrod 100 year old farm house in Manchester Tennessee. We had many talks about the military and about the Vietnam war, in which he served... He really enjoyed the old farm house and I enjoyed having him and Darlene live there for all of these years... Thanks.... Carl, I salute you for your service...!!!!

RIP....

“ The first time I met Quenton we had an argument about hummingbird feeders. One of the last things he called me was "smart--". Loved that man!
