“ I want to wish you many many memories as I am sure you have. I never knew you of course, but my husband's name was Carl C. Barnes and we lived in Oregon. His brother's name is George. Carl was an extremely wonderful and loving person and I am sure your Carl was also. God Bless you and your family.

“ So sad to hear of Mr. George's passing. He trained a horse for us (The Oxford Family) in my youth, I remember playing with Georgette down at their barn. He always had a smile on his face and a kind word to share. I always enjoyed catching up with him each year at The Celebration. The gate won't be the same this year. Our deepest sympathy, Barnes family. We just loved Mr. George! -

“ To George's family, we thought the world of George. We can't remember a time when we did not know him to be kind. He was always the same whether you saw him at the barn, a horse show, or keeping the gate at the Celebration. He will be missed by all who knew him. Jackie and Connie Byrom
