

Mrs. Carolyn "Susie" Nelson

January 27, 1944 - June 18, 2019

Carolyn Sue (Susie) Nelson passed away on Tuesday, June 18, 2019, at her home surrounded by her loving family. Susie was 75 years old.

Susie was born January 27, 1944. She was born in Cooketown, Tennessee, to the late Lushion and Gladys Vaughn. She was the third of six children, three preceded her death.

Susie married David Nelson in 1997. She had four daughters and he had two daughters and a son. She professed her life to Christ at an early age. She was an avid member of Cornerstone Baptist Church. She loved going to church for the fellowship and cherished praising the Lord. Susie loved to read her Bible, praying for and with others, spending time with her family, laughing, and always wearing a smile on her beautiful face. To know Susie was to love her, she was such a kind and warm soul.

Susie leaves to cherish her loving memory, her children, Linda Wardell, Kandy Smith, and Kimberly Blankenship, and the late Lisa Beasley Henderson. Susie has 12 grandchildren, many great-grandchildren, and of course her loving husband, David Nelson.

“ I didn't do a great job or even a subpar job keeping in touch after the passing of my mom but I can remember living with Granny a lot during my childhood and the look on her face when I took apart all the kitchen drawers and cabinets with my first ever tool box was priceless. Im glad I got to give her a big hug before she left.

“ My Granny ❤️ The rock of our family! And now the most beautiful angel heaven has ever seen! Her legacy will live on in the faces and hearts of those, like my children and I, that spent so many years, loving her, learning from her, building memories with her and growing closer to God through her never failing patience and kindness. You see... that's just who she was. In 30 years I can't even recall seeing her angry more than once. She was quick to forgive, so gentle and humble and just the very reflection of living in Gods word. Our family has taken a huge loss, but I am so excited for my precious granny to finally be in her true home ❤️🏠 With her true Father! Where she will remain for eternity, perfect, never to feel pain, never to feel sadness, only pure perfection in reward for the truly amazing life she lived. Love you Grannie! Kiss Lisa for me 💋
xoxo
