

Cheri Conner Irwin

June 5, 1949 - December 21, 2025

Cheri Conner Irwin, age 76, passed away on December 21, 2025, at Vanderbilt University Medical Center in Nashville, Tennessee.

She was born on June 5, 1949, in Shelbyville, Tennessee, to the late Jewel Cromwell Conner and William “Bill” Conner.

Cheri is survived by her beloved son, Matt Irwin; his wife, Michelle; and their three children, Brady, Tyler, and Lucas, who affectionately called her “Mimi.” She is also survived by her sister, Christi Pittman of Cornelia, Georgia; Christi’s husband, Rick Pittman; and their three daughters, Angie, Rachel, and Jennifer.

Cheri was a loving mother and grandmother who cherished her family deeply, especially her three grandsons. She loved attending their sporting events and socializing with friends and family at their games. She also enjoyed spending time outdoors, swinging on her deck and working in her yard—especially tending to her flowers.

Cheri was a talented and passionate artist. For several years, she taught art classes in her home for children, created detailed drawings of houses, and provided calligraphy services for weddings and other special events. She also loved playing golf and took great joy in traveling with her son, Matt, to watch many PGA tournaments over the years.

Her kindness, love, and selfless devotion to others will always be remembered.

Cheri will be dearly missed.
