“ Ellie...the last time I saw you , I bought that delicious bread from you. We met at the store in Shelbyville and talk for a few minutes. I told you how much you looked like your Sweet Beautiful Mama and how much April and I loved her too . We hug and loved on each other and said our not knowing final I Love You.
Rest in Peace Honey and no more sickness and pain. Will remember and love you rest of my days Rosemary Blanton
