“ Brian! How my heart breaks for you my sweet cousin. Life is short and unexpected! Give my Daddy a big hug for me. You were the cutest little boy I have ever seen. You grew to be a great and loving man! You're intelligence was beyond your years. You're heart was so open and so full. Growing up and visiting Tennessee with Daddy was great, but the best part was coming to saint Diane and Uncle Charles' house to see you, Scottie and Billy. We used to be so close and then life happens. We grow apart and everyday chaos takes over and you always think tomorrow I will visit. Tomorrow came and we just pushed the visits aside. I love you my sweet cousin with the great big hugs and the great big wide open heart. You rest now! Tell Grandma Amelia to take care of you. My sweet precious Brian, I am so sorry I didn't get to say goodbye! I love you with all my heart!

“ I know we didn't always get along, Brian. With the occasional spats at home and at Westwood Elementary like that time in Ms Bouldin's class. I wasn't trying to see your test score. That was the only time we both got sent home for fighting. But we had some good times. Breaking knockout records on Punch-Out, enjoying Final Fantasy III, making our own comic books with Joey Winfree, playing in the woods and building forts with Tyson Holder, and representing Coffee County Bank in minor league baseball even though wins were very few. We had big games of hide-n-seek with our oldest brother, Billy, several cousins, and a bunch of neighborhood kids. We had Rock City and the Knoxville Zoo. As we've grown and drifted in distant, we may not have talked as much or seen each other alot, but you are will always be my brother, so that love and connection will always stay as strong. I know you wanted to come see us in Utah. You would've loved these mountains. Well, now you have an even better view of them than I do. Ika and Abraham send their love. Thank you, for being such a good brother. Until we meet again....

Love always,
Scotty, Ika, & Abraham Pressley
