“ Elizabeth has always been so loved by our entire family. She has walked us through births and deaths; happy times and challenging seasons; everyday events and special occasions - always with a calm, comforting, and joyful spirit. When my mother passed away, she was one of the first to come and minister to our grieving hearts and her presence brought me such peace.

I know she is rejoicing with our Savior and I pray the family will be comforted as they reflect on the tremendous blessing she has been to all those privileged to know her as she served our Lord and reflected His grace.

“ Mother Robinson was servant after God's own heart. She had a smile that would light up the room. Growing up in First Baptist it was truly an extended family and she was one of the grandmothers. She always had a kind word for me. She fought a good fight and kept the faith. Welcome home thy good and faithful servant! Your works can truly speak for you! To the family allow God to comfort you during this time and rest in knowing that she's in his arms!
