

Mr. Elmer Wallace Hancock

May 5, 1929 - November 18, 2020

Mr. Elmer Wallace "Coach" Hancock, age 91, of Shelbyville, passed away November 18, 2020.

Graveside services will be 11:30 A.M. Sunday, November 22, 2020, at Prosperity Cemetery in Auburntown, Tennessee. Chaplain Jack Kennington will officiate.

He was born May 5, 1929, in Cannon County, to the late Elmer Ray Hancock and Elizabeth Lucille Gaither Hancock. He was the Coach at Shelbyville Central High School for many years and will lovingly be remembered as 'Coach' by many. He was a faithful member of First Christian Church where he sang in the choir. He was also a member of Riverbend Country Club and their 'Gaggle' Club. He loved his faith, his family, golf, music and all sports.

He is preceded in death by his step-son, James Clayton Carter.

He is survived by his wife, Brenda Hancock, of Shelbyville; a daughter, Tonya Vernon, and her husband Bryan, of Statham, Georgia; daughter-in-law, Natalie Barber Dennis, and her husband Chad; and five grandchildren: Callie Mae Vernon, Jefferson "Jake" Ryan Vernon, Rickee Gayle Carter, Justin E. Farris, and Timothy Nolan Farris.

In lieu of flowers, the family would be honored for memorials to be made to Hospice Compassus 1805 N. Jackson St Tullahoma, TN 37388.

Feldhaus Memorial Chapel is assisting the family.

A great youth coach. I talked to him at Blue Ribbon Cleaners a few years ago about his coaching days for the freshman basketball team. We had a good laugh talking about him saying Harris I want you to play but that hair has to go. It was the first and last time I ever had a flat top. As a coach his shoes will fro ever be hard to fill. RIP Coach Hancock!
