“ I was in Atlanta for work and the play “Colored Purple” was at The Fox Theater starring Fantasia. My wife Sharon Jordan Crismon wanted to see the play. She did not want to drive to Atlanta but she had the ability to talk Mrs. Emma and Mrs. Jean to drive her to Atlanta and to go to the play with us. We had an awesome time.

Another memory - Mrs. Emma was a care giver at times for my Father to provide relief for my mother. You will be miss. With Love,
Fred Crismon

I have so many memories of "Ms. Emma Jean" as a 13 year old and into my adult life. She always reminded me to be a "lady" and her smile/laughter is what I will miss. Take Your Rest now...
