“ One of my fondest memories was the year we went to the Marietta GA Cobb County Relic Hunters Civil War Show. I drove down on a Friday . That night I was up all night listing to Gary snoring the covers off his bed Sat. morning I said hey Gary, What ? You will have to let me go to sleep first tonight, If not you will have to drive back, don't think I can stay up 2 nights and, drive that far. That night I went to sleep and, never heard Gary.. Gary I didn't hear you snoring last night. I lay there until I knew you was asleep. We both laughed. We had a great time at the CW Show. We both relic hunted at the time and, spent some time metal detecting out at the Gap in Bell Buckle. He was a fine man and, a fine friend, If I called him and, needed help, he would say, I will be right there. I know he did it several times over the years. He spent his time at Phu Bai right on the DMZ or same as.. Semper FI...He was a great friend and, a great Marine. A piece of my heart is gone each time I loose a Vietnam Brother that's a close friend but Gary takes a larger piece of my heart than most I have known. Pain is gone Brother, Rest in Peace So proud to have known you. The memories of you will live on till I pass. Jan Lloyd
