

Mr. George Edward Hill Sr.

February 18, 1948 - April 12, 2023

Funeral services 1 PM Saturday, April 22, 2024, at Feldhaus Memorial Chapel.

The family will receive visitors one hour prior to service Saturday at the funeral home.

George Edward Hill Sr., affectionately known as “Sonny” was born February 18, 1948, to the late George Henry and Evelyn Hill of Atlanta, GA. He was educated in the Atlanta Public Schools system and was a graduate of South Fulton High School. Sonny had always been a hard worker and kept his hands busy working on cars and trucks. He worked from his early twenties and retired from Delta Airlines. He always loved animals and motorcycles that passion dominated his youth. He rode with the Golden Hawk Motor Club. However, nothing compared to his love of horses. As a child he always wanted a horse but not until early adulthood he purchased his first horse. He loved, groomed, and trained horses. Participating in all arenas of horse showmanship and sharing his love of horses with everyone brought him much joy. He relocated to Shelbyville to entrench and surrounded himself by a community that also loved horses.

He was preceded in death by his wife Carol Hill; son, George E. Hill Jr; mother, Evelyn G. Hill; father, George H. Hill, and his sister, Debra J. Hill.

He leaves to cherish his memory his children: devoted daughter Monique Hill and son, D’Juan “Mel” Hill;

Grandchildren: Alexander Swift, Tony R. Swift, Jr., Malachi Hill, Eli Hill, Keyrhina “K-K” Hill; great-grandchildren: Skylar Davis, Sidney Davis, Sloane Moore, and Myla Swift; siblings: Ms. Frankie Howard,

Ms. Joeen Hill, Harold Tony Hill of Atlanta, GA; nieces and nephews: Lisa Thompson, Mellanee Wallace,

Cherylrita Cone, Winfrey Hill, Roman Hill, Bryant Hill, and Evelyn Hill. His longtime childhood friend

James E. “Shade” Hill and a host of other relatives, friends, and loved ones.

“ I met George back in 2015. We discussed many things over coffee, and stirred stuff up before leaving to tackle the day. He adopted my spoiled chickens and made sure to remind me I spoiled them. Who drives a tractor around shelbyville and gets away with it? George does. When they called his name in heaven, I'm sure he yelled out "In tha house". I will dearly miss our conversations and his stories. But I will see him again on that fine day.

My condolences to George's family. As a friend and co worker at the airlines, we spent a lot of memorable times. George was tough but had a heart of gold and if you were his friend he stood beside you through thick and thin. We loved our Corvettes and motorcycles especially with the painted mural tanks. He will be missed . Hammer Down George, your friend Terry Killingsworth (Killer)

The best big brother one could ever have. He always looked out for me and repaired my cars never expected any pay. I remember one Sunday we were in church service, Shiloh Missionary Baptist Church I was eleven years old he reached out for my hand and we walked down front and joined the church. He will be missed and will always be loved. I am so glad that I no longer have to worry when is he going to move back home. He is secure now, resting in peace Amen!
