“ The St. William Youth Group sends our condolences. Ms. Isabel was so gracious welcoming us into her home & for listening to us sing Christmas carols. She was a wealth of knowledge about our Catholic faith & she loved to share it with us! She was so proud of the painting of her childhood parish & talked about it at every visit. We loved our moments spent with her! (And I know she enjoyed her time with us!) Rest in Peace, Ms. Isabel.

Wanda, so sorry to hear about your mother, she was a very special lady and so much fun to be around. I haven't seen her in years, but thought about her often and some of the things you and I used to do!! Hope God wraps his arms around you and helps you during this sad time.

“ Isabel is definitely on my list of "People Who Have Helped Me Along the Way". She was my manager at Cortner Mill Restaurant from the time she was 62 to 74. I learned so much from her fifty years in the food service business. -David Hazelwood
