“ So sorry to hear of Jim's passing. I could count on Jim to call me after a Storm and tell me his phone or internet would not work. I enjoyed being around him. He was a pleasant man. Also, when I was in High School, he and Janice stopped and helped me when I has an Automobile Accident. I will surely miss him.

*Sorry to hear of the passing of James Richard. He and Mary Jane and my brother, Miller Fulks and I all went to Pleasant Grove Elementary school together for several years. Our families were friends and visited with each other in those days. My parents were the late Arch and Margarett Bingham Fulks. We moved to Moore County in Jan. 1947. Miller and I still live there.
