

Mr. James Leonard Cook

January 7, 1946 - November 15, 2019

Mr. James Leonard Cook, age 73, of Shelbyville, passed away November 15, 2019.

A Memorial Service will be 5 PM Monday, November 18, 2019, at Victory Baptist Church. Reverend Lloyd Warren will officiate.

He was born January 7, 1946, in Shelbyville, to the late Leonard Hershel and Nannie Ruth Davenport Cook. He was retired machine operator from Eaton Corporation, and was known for his love of chocolate.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his son, Leonard Mark Cook, and a brother, Albert Cook.

Survivors include his wife of 53 years, Deborah Jean Franks Cook, of Shelbyville; two daughters, Pamela Jean Cargill and Deborah Michelle Cook; a sister, Mary Elizabeth Stacy, and a brother, Robert Cook; grandchildren, Delise Cargill, Johnathan Cook, Katee Cargill, Cassidy Cook, Michael Mills, and Wyatt Mills; six great grandchildren.

Feldhaus Memorial Chapel is assisting the family.

Previous Events

Memorial Service

NOV 18. 5:00 PM (CT)

Victory Baptist Church
Shelbyville, TN

Tribute Wall

JR

“ Jeremy Reed lit a candle in memory of Mr. James Leonard Cook

---

Jeremy Reed - November 18, 2019 at 11:43 PM

PC

“ Would also like to add my dad ( James Leonard Cook ) was preceded in death by his son Leonard Mark Cook , which was left out if obituary.

---

Pam Cargill - November 18, 2019 at 12:32 PM

“ Simply Elegant Spathiphyllum was purchased for the family of Mr. James Leonard Cook.

---

November 18, 2019 at 09:16 AM

LJ

“ Sorry for your loss, I worked with James for many years at Eaton, and I would have to say that he was one of the best employees that I worked with.

James will be missed by many fellow Eaton employees.

Larry Joyce

---

Larry Joyce - November 17, 2019 at 08:17 PM