“ When we were growing up in Tullahoma, Jim would always come to our house and spend the whole Summer. We went barefoot all Summer, and he had a little trouble walking barefoot on hot tar covered roads. Jim, Ron, and I would walk 10 miles just to see a horse. He always loved horses. He was a very good rider, and he owned a race horse in Michigan. He was like a brother to us, and we will miss his smiling face. Don Darden
