“ It is with a heavy heart that I only learned of your passing today . I have not been reading my paper daily since January due to major surgery , and other health issues . As I was going through the last months papers , I was sadden to read of your passing .

I thought of the many memories we shared , the time we spent on the road in the 18 wheeler . The many things we got to see as we made our deliveries .

I remember the first time you told me you loved me , over the phone while I was at work !! I remember you getting on one knee and asking me to marry you . We had a good marriage while it lasted . Never did you disrespect me or ever lay a hand on me , that was not who you were. Regretfully our marriage did not last , and it was not because of anything that you or I had done wrong . You and I are the two who know why .

We did remain friends for we shared a bond that others will never understand .

I know that you always loved me , for you told me more then once , that you would never love anyone the way you did me . I keep that love in my heart , just as I have always kept my love for you in my heart . You were and always will have a special place in my heart . Others may not understand this , but that's ok , for you did , and I do .

Your handle was the Living Legend , so keep on trucking my precious friend .

I know that my precious daughter Nicole , who I lost 5 years ago , will be happy to see you Heaven . You will have so much to talk about.

RIP James ,you are forever in my heart .

My deepest sympathies to Helen and Arlene , as well as all of the family .

My love and prayers to all of you , for I know how very special James was to you .

“ Me and James cooked a Turkey one time, when we dated, got to say it turned out pretty good, we laughed. At stupid things, he was always had a big heart for others, he was a funny guy, could always tell, you about everyone in town, I couldn't figure out how he knew so much! RIP friend, see you on the other side, Sharon Figg!!
