“ Dear Terri and Carol,

I read with sorrow of the passing of Janice. I offer my compassion at this sad time.

I see that Janice resided in Shelbyville, Tennessee. It made me wonder if you folks have continued your interest in walking horses through your sister.

Please accept my condolences. God bless you all.

Sincerely,

JOHN LACKEY

“ I was saddened to hear of Janice’s passing. Although we had not kept in touch over the years since graduating from Model, I’ve often thought of her and wondered if she was still creating the wonderful equine art at which she was so accomplished. I’ll miss seeing her at our class reunion. My condolences to all in her family.

“ In my last conversation with Janice we picked right back up where we left off 50 years ago. She still had her love of horses. Her Model Lab. class of 1967 will miss her and cherish our memories of her.

“ So sorry to learn of Janice's passing. I knew her all through grade and high school and remember her as a soft spoken girl with a love of horses. Although we had not stayed in touch, I was looking forward to seeing her at our fiftieth high school reunion in August. My condolences and best wishes to her family and friends.

“ Fond memories of Janice in Dick Deane's art classes at Model -- amazing equine artist with a discerning eye for the finest details of their beauty! Lost touch over the years since, but am nonetheless saddened. Prayers and encouragement for her family and friends.

*Dear Larry, Audrey and Jessica, I am so sorry you have lost Janice. She was always a quiet, thoughtful friend. We were in Sunday School together and were school friends too. Janice lived up the street from my Grandmother early in life and one street over from my house when she was older. She loved horses and I loved sewing... but we always were close. I, too, have lost immediate family and, therefore, understand the path you are each walking right now. My thoughts and prayers are with you.
Sincerely, Shirley Davis*
