“ I loved joan, I called her little Joan because she was so small and that was one way my husband's, Jim, could remember her. She was looking for a small dog and I found one on Craigslist and it took forever for her to go see her. When she did it was love at first sight for the both of them. I'm so glad she had Gidget as a companion for last 5 or so years. I know you're in heaven as you were a wonderful person. I'll miss seeing you and giving you a hug at church. ❤️
