“ I lost one of my dearest friends. Wanda was more like family to me. She had a heart of gold. We were neighbors and spent almost every day together until she moved last fall. She was my emergency contact, my kids Aunt Wanda, my friend. She was the only one who could calm Zayn down when he was a baby. All she had to do was walk in the door or say "hi chunkers" and he'd be happy. We were just talking about how much we missed our front porch sits while the kids would play. What I wouldn't give to have just one more afternoon like that with her. Or to have her make Zayn giggle like she always could. May you rest in heaven sweet friend. My Wanda.
