

Karen Kemp Brundige

December 6, 1942 - September 27, 2017

Karen Kemp Brundige, age 74, entered into eternal rest early Wednesday morning around 4:00 am surrounded by her loved ones. She is survived by her loving husband, Bobby Joe Brundige, her sons: Wayne Dotson (wife Kefaya) and Kevin Dotson, Her daughter, Kimbderly Dawn Martin (Husband Tony), seven grandchildren: Elloit, Evan and Sarah Dotson, Andria Avgerinos and Zach Dotson and Lydia and Timothy Martin. Bob and Karen were married for almost 50 years. Karen was a member of Southside Baptist Church and also thoroughly enjoyed attending Community Bible Study in Shelbyville for many years. She was a kind, loving and generous wife, mother and grandmother. She was instrumental in planning several wonderful family vacations, some of which included: New Orleans, Disney World, Gulf Shores, Alabama and Destin, Florida. She loved spending time with her grandchildren!!! When they all were not recording themselves singing and dancing and dressing up, they would be cooking in the kitchen, playing in the park, going fishing or perhaps all piled up in bed just watching television. Visitation will be on Thursday, September 28, 2017 from 5:00 to 8:00 pm at Gowen - Smith Chapel in Shelbyville. Karen will be buried in Portland, Tennessee at Maple Hill Cemetery near her grandparents whom she adored.
