“ For all of the years that I have known Lynn, the days that always come to mind are when my family lived on East Cedar Street. Lynn would come to the neighborhood and, to me, you could sense that her bubbly, energetic personality was in the area. Especially during the summers, Lynn would be visiting with her aunt and cousin, and eventually get to our house. In those days, our small group would gather, listen to music, ride bicycles, play football in the neighbor's yard, make our way on up East Cedar to play neighborhood softball, and even play team softball across town at night. And, if it was August, we would ride our bikes under seats at the horse show during the day, go home and do chores before meeting again to walk up to the horse show at night. I even went to church with Lynn and her cousin a few times. Lynn and I were classmates. Lots to remember and to miss. Those teenage days have always come to mind when I think of Lynn and they have been top of mind in recent days. FAMILY, my memories pale in comparison to yours. I know that GOD will bless you and keep you. Praying for you all. Love, Mattie/sis

I never met Lynn face to face I was engaged to her brother While he was over seas Lynn was to come and spend the summer with me and never did make the trip. At some point Lynn got pregnant and had her son we kept intouch until the passing of her brother Buddy. I have always missed our hearts to heart conversations and wonder how her son and grandchildren were doing. Praying all are surviving and doing well

“ So very sad to hear of Lynn’s passing. I have such fond memories of Lynn from our childhood days. Like the time Lynn, I and eight others flew to Huntsville, Al on our first plane trip. Lynn was so excited as we all were at the tender age 7 or 8 years old.

*To Lynn’s family.....she will always be in our hearts and minds.
Thank you for the wonderful memories Lynn. Thank You !!

“ I'm truly grateful to hold fond memories of Lynn during our childhood and teenage years. Lynn had a very compassionate heart, along with a humorous spirit.
I send prayers of peace, comfort and understanding up for her lovely family.
