Faye was a beloved mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and friend. She passed away on April 25, 2025, in Shelbyville, Tennessee. Formerly of Lincoln Park, Michigan, Faye's life was a testament to strength, resilience, and unwavering love.

To know her was to witness true grace under pressure. She faced life's trials and tribulations with a quiet & undeniable strength. She was the kind of person who would play along, no matter how silly, just to bring laughter to her children and grandchildren.
