“ Marjorie had a huge heart and her love for her family was always evident. She cherished her children and all of the grands. I loved to listen to her tell stories about all of them. Her humor was contagious and there was always laughter when she was around. Marjorie was well known for her beautiful baby blankets. There was so much love poured into her creations and they were all just amazing. I feel blessed to have been able to call her family. RIP dear sister in-law.....
