“ To the Webb Family,

My heart is broken. Mike was a good neighbor and friend. He and Betty would often sit on my patio with me. After her passing, I would fix food for him and take it over. He would ride his mower to the mailbox and often drop by to sit when I was outside. Christmas he brought this beautiful Poinsettia over, he said I appreciate all you do for me. Mike shared many Prayers with me and his strong belief in God. My Prayers are with all the Webb Family. He will certainly be missed.

“ Matt and Feather, and family, our hearts are broken with you. Mike and Betty were 2 of our favorite people. We've enjoyed hours of visits, great fun, wonderful food and conversation, emails, and calls over the years. And our lives are better for having spent time with them both. Now Mike is out of pain, back with his beloved Betty, and that is our consolation.

“ To The Webb Family,

We were so sorry to hear about Mike. He was a great neighbor and a good friend. He would ride his mower over, and lots of times sit with us in the garage to talk. We would take him some food from time to time, and he acted like he appreciated it so much. He brought us a beautiful poinsettia right before Christmas. We know he has had hard times since Betty passed away, but at least now, he is with her. They are in a beautiful paradise, a place of joy, youth and good health. Our thoughts and prayers will be with you during this difficult time.
