“ No matter how far apart nor how long it's been since we've seen one another.... you will and always have been my one true friend...Heaven just gained a soul who's light shined for so many and always left a smile on the faces of those she encountered...I love you so much and am so distraught that you had to leave before you came...God must have a reason, although for all of us, it's so difficult to understand. You have always been, are now, and will forever be in my heart... ❤️ Jennifer
