

Pamela Joy Phillips

February 11, 1962 - November 25, 2025

Pamela Joy Phillips, age 63, passed away on November 25, 2025. She was born on February 11, 1962, in Cincinnati, Ohio, to the late Joe Greschel and Donna [Sammons, Pruett, Greschel] Gregory Pamela was preceded in death by her parents; her son, Phillip Phillips II; and her brother, Thomas Greschel. She is survived by her loving sisters, Rebecca Brown and Jo Beech, and her cherished grandchildren, Amythest and Auburn Phillips.

Pamela made Tennessee her home for 52 years. Over the course of her life, she worked a wide variety of jobs, including positions at McDonald's, Funland, Caterpillar in Nashville, as a secretary for a lawyer in Memphis, and later in janitorial services for Vanderbilt in Nashville. A true jack of all trades, she found pride in her ability to learn, adapt, and give her best to every role she held.

She was a gentle, kind-hearted spirit who brought joy wherever she went, especially to the children she encountered—many of whom adored her warm presence. Pamela also had a deep love for animals and was especially fond of her two beloved cats, Snowball and Trouble.

During her years living at Trevecca Towers in Nashville, she formed many dear friendships and became a beloved member of the community. Her kindness, humor, and easygoing nature will be missed by all who knew her.

A service to honor Pamela's life will be held at 5:00 p.m. on Friday, December 5, 2025, at Feldhaus Memorial Chapel. The family will receive friends from 2:00 p.m. until the time of service.

Pamela Joy Phillips will be remembered for her resilient spirit, her love for others, and the gentleness she carried through life.
