“ I worked with Paul in the early 80's at Fly Mfg.. We became good friends as well as co-workers. We spent many hours discussing his love of fishing or we would meet at the camp ground with our families. He was a good man and friend. He will be missed.

“ I worked with Paul at Wood-Way on Madison St over 30 years ago. He was a good man. He taught me everything I needed to know about industrial engineering. We also had a few lively discussions. Paul could be a little hard headed <grin>. He was an encouragement to me and I will never forget him.

“ I remember when Brittnye was at the camp ground with Annie Lou and Paul was riding either a 3 or 4 wheeler and Brittnye ask Annie Lou if she could go play with that big kid. Every time we saw Paul he would tell thus story, I have lots of great memories of Paul. He will be missed but just think he is with his mom and dad and his Aunts and Uncles.

“ When I would visit Tennessee, Paul took great pleasure in showing me around his area of this beautiful state. I loved his dry humor and outgoing ways. He will be missed.

“ Loved Paul, he always called me "Porky" from the time I was growing up until this very day. The last time I saw Paul which was at Wheel Homecoming he said, "Hey Porky". Always brings a smile to my face.
