“ Renita,

You will be missed tremendously. I've only known you for a short while during jury duty but you have touched each and every one of us in a special way. I will never forgot our laughs and conversations each day. We miss you but we know you are resting peacefully.

My thoughts and prayers are with you and the family during this difficult and troublesome time.

RIP

We will meet again.

“ The world was a better place with Renita in it. She was a true friend and will be sorely missed. "God must have needed an angel" and He truly got what He needed when He called Renita home. My deepest sympathies to her family that she loved more than life itself. Please find comfort knowing she will always be with you. ”
