“ I was so blessed to meet Richard back in the 70s.He lived across the street from us.I always thought he was a very nice man. Years had gone by and one day he walked up to me at the Dollar Store in Old Hickory.I had not seen him in over 40 years.We talked a while and exchanged stores.He still had that beautiful smile.I am so glad that I got to see him.I feel like that was a God thing.Rest in peace you beautiful soul.May the good memories keep you all strong.I have much love to the whole family.God be with you all in this sad time , Angie Mckinney

“ Jim and I are so blessed to have spent time with sweet Mr. Richard. Driving him to dialysis, as much as he hated to go, was a time when we always found something to laugh about, so I guess my favorite memory was hearing him laugh. Comfort in knowing I'll see him again in heaven. Thank You Lord for Richard
