“ Bob... It still hurts to think that you're gone. Despite not knowing you personally, you were an important part of my youth, I admired your talent and looked up to you. Your dedication, you intensity, both the bright and the dark side of your personality were always inspiring, and you were a guiding presence when I felt at my lowest. I hope that, wherever you are, the pain and loneliness you experienced in life are gone, and you're resting, surrounded by your loved ones. I will always remember you and your legacy.

“ It’s been almost a year since you passing, Bobbie. Some days, knowing you’re finally resting, hurt more than others. Hopping you’re finally in a place full of light and love, waiting for us to join the parade you’re leading.
Rest easy, we love you. ❤️

“ Bob, I just knew about this news 10 days ago. Until this day, I still cry until today. I always admire him and hope one day I can meet him. I love MCR when I was 15 years old. And I never ever regret to buy mcr ticket concert in jakarta 17 years ago. It was the first time I saw you directly. His drumming skill always give me goosebumps. I still wish it's a dream. I will and always keep you in my memory. I hope you know that many people love you. My condolences for your mom, family and your friends. Love Xeni from Indonesia.

“ I'd like to send my very best wishes to Bob's family and loved ones after the terrible news of Bob's untimely passing in November. I cannot imagine how difficult recent months must have been.

Bob gave us his remarkable talents on music that has meant more to me than I can express here, and although they came to a parting of the ways I have always held Bob in the same regard as the rest of the band, and will continue to. I realise that I only have one facet of many of the person Bob was, and I am sure you have many fond memories.

Perhaps it is a little comfort that in his honour, and to pay the Ferryman, I have made a donation (before I saw your request on this page) to Williamson County Animal Center (who I understand he was involved with) and to CALM (Campaign Against Living Miserably, a UK mental health charity).

Thankyou, Bob. May you have found what you sought.

“ I remember meeting and chatting with Bob back in 2005 when I was only 14. I wanted to say how kind of a person Bob really was, and how much of an impact he made while he was here in so many ways. He will forever be missed and will always be remembered. Gone far too soon.

Rest In Peace, Bob.

“ I can't believe it has been more than 2 months since Bob's death. The day I found out I cried my eyes out and did so for about 3 more days. I remember the day he inspired me to start a band of my own and achieve my dream of being famous one day, hopefully, at least. Thank you, so much for being one of my motivators from afar to help me stop a suicide once in my life, sending prayers to the family and hoping that you are well and with Jesus as you should be.

“ He was an important part of my life when I was a teenager who felt lost and misunderstood back then 2000's. I always called him "Bob, the good boy" because I always saw him shy, kind and silent. I have never could imagined the hell he was suffering inside his head, and I am so sorry for what happened to him. Repose in peace, Bob, from the bottom of my heart I hope you find the peace you needed. We will always remember you. Sendings hugs to his family. With love from Spain.

“ He shaped my formative years and it's thanks to him I met the most caring and loving people I've ever met and they've been my support system to get me through some rough times. Without Bob I don't think I'd be here today for the snowball of positive influence he had on so many lives.

“ I'll never forget the first time I heard Welcome to the Black Parade. I was blown away and it wasn't because of the lyrics (which are amazing) but it was because of Bob's drumming. It gave me goosebumps. To this day, whenever I hear that song, I always rewind to 1:02 and listen to that drumming bit on repeat. Thank you for all you did for MCR and your dedication to animals. I will be making a donation in your honor on your birthday. You left an imprint on music and your memory will carry on. We will never forget you ❤️❤️

“ It's still such a big shock that Bob Bryar has passed. He was such a great drummer and he an integral part of the Black Parade era of My Chemical Romance. I will never forget him and think about him all the time. Wish I could have met him. I hope Bob finds peace ❤️

“ I was so sad to hear that Bob had passed. He was a huge part of my life. I have followed and adored My Chemical Romance for 20+ years and Bob was MY drummer. I met him once and he helped calm my anxieties and nerves. He will be missed but fondly remembered for his incredible skills as a drummer. May he rest in peace. Sending love and thoughts to his mother, family and friends.

“ What began as a business relationship three years ago blossomed into a wonderful and cherished friendship. Bob had a truly unique soul, one that radiated love, silliness, and compassion—especially for his beloved fur babies, who were his entire world.

For those fortunate enough to know him, Bob had a big heart, though he reserved its depths for a lucky few. Witnessing his devotion to his animals was a testament to his kind and caring nature. Bob’s love for Fred and Michelle was unconditional, and his commitment to them and to the broader animal community was truly inspiring.

My husband and I are beyond devastated by his passing, and we can only hope Bob knew how much he meant to us and how deeply we cared for him. Bob, you were truly one of a kind. Thank you for being yourself, for all you did for animals, and for the love and laughter you brought into our lives.

You will be forever missed, dear friend.

“ Rented a ladder to him about a month ago. We couldn't believe it when he moved to the area when he told us who he was. Nice guy who seemed to love the dogs he adopted. He was doing some work to his house. When He told us he was in My Chemical Romance, we were surprised and had no idea.
