“ Dear dad, Anyone can be a father but it takes someone very special to be a dad and there is no man more special than you. Thank you for taking care of my momma and for everything you have done for our family. "I'll love you forever and I'll like you for always. As long as I'm living, my dad you will be". Love always, Rosie

“ This is a quote I stole from a tv show. I think of it often. And what perfect time I can use it for you Uncle Bob. I remember when you married Aunt Betty. I'll never forget because I got married in the exact same standing location. Haha.

I sometimes imagine what life will be like without those who have crossed over and it's hard. It's really hard but we do. We do find a way. Eventually. And I know I don't have to say goodbye because you already know. You had a sense of humor and I will always visualize our conversations just watching you chuckle and shrug your shoulders up and down from laughing while your rubbing your hands together. I love you!

Quote>

"Does anything of "him" survive beyond death?

(Yes..you.)

Consciousness is a community of minds.

Each exist in the others thoughts.

"Bob" exists in your consciousness, as if he had never left.

You still love him? You still feel him.

So what has changed?

(He's dead, gone.)

But he once lived, and you knew him and you know him still."

“ Bob! How we are going to miss you! You have been a blessed part of our life for a long time, brother!! You made us have so many wonderful memories!! We love you dearly and always will! I'm going to miss your words, " There's the gal I've been looking for", when I walked in your door and you needed help with something! I enjoyed cooking, cleaning, helping you in any way! We had some great talks and memories of Betty! I know you are at peace in Heaven with her now! The both of you are the happiest you've ever been! God Bless the entire family! I'm here if you need me! Love always, Gary & Judy
