“Ronnie Saddler was a joy to all that knew him. He worked at NASA as their Barber for many years and had countless friends who depended on him weekly for a trim and even after he left NASA and put in his own West Side Barber Shop, they continue to use his services. He was a wonderful story teller and having been raised in Florence, AL, same as I, shared many stories of his days growing up there. He was a delightful fellow and I only wish I could have talked to him one more time. My husband Jim started using him when he had West Side and felt the same way. Our condolence to his family. He was a wonderful fellow. Jim and Anne Sims. Madison, AL

“Betty, Randy, Carlos, Glen, and Family our thoughts and prayers are with you all at this time.

From my earliest memories he was always out to get a smile from everyone. He always had a story to tell to get a smile, and would usually ask me if I had any stories he could add to his collection since I was from out of town.

He loved Checkers, and I always used to love watching him and Uncle Dewey try to out story each other while attempting to distract the other to get an advantage in the checker game.

Precious memories for many a year,

He will be missed.

God bless and comfort you all at this time.
