“ Although it's been over 50 years I'll always have fond memories of going to visit Aunt Baby, R.B. and Russell. It was always such a treat going out to their property and running wild with them and the horses. AND Stones River ran right there along side their place. All the mischief we would get into! Like when R.B. and Russell talked my brother, Donnie, into dragging a pig home that they had "Russelled" and tied to a plank. Or the boys putting lots of socks on their hands and boxing (beating the crap out of each other!) WE would go down to the river and spend forever trying to catch fish with our bare hands! We moved away to Florida so we didn't get to see them but a time or two after but I'll always cherish those times we had! May You Rest in Peace Russell.

Love to you and yours from your cousins,
Debbie Pate Donovan
and Donnie Pate

Ya'll may or may not remember Danny, our younger brother. He was SO much a big part of all that mischief! He passed away last year.
