Brad it hurts that your hero never made sure you had everything you wanted I think if he were your hero perhaps you would be doing more than. A cat walker... seriously Ken supported you nothing else and the woman he married hes not telling her many truths..so I just dont understand why I'm not forgiven..we have all messed up and had our secrets and I'd you live long enough so will you. You will not hear from me again..it hurt but it makes them and you look stupid...they never done a thing for you...you didnt live off them for 28 yr old..hero you chose to be nothing. We know who's to blame for that..hopefully this world will come to an end soon. The balls in your court. Never again..

“ Death leaves heartache no one can heal, their love leaves a memory no one can steal, and when someone you love becomes a memory, that memory becomes a treasure. Treasured in our heart they'll stay, until we meet again some day, because to live in the hearts of those we love is never to die. We must always remember that death may be the last chapter in time, but it's merely the first chapter in eternity.

Even in the darkest of times, there is always a sparkle of light peaking through, and in that light lies the most important message & reminder of all, "Those we love don't go away, they're with us every single day, unseen, unheard, but always near. Still loved, still missed, they are the sun, the moon, the wind, the stars, they'll forever be around reminding us of the love we shared, and the peace they finally found."

We must embrace pain and burn it as fuel for our journey. Each happiness of yesterday is a beautiful memory for tomorrow, because when someone is in your heart, they're never truly gone.

Sleep well my beautiful cousin, I've always been with you, even when I wasn't. You'll always be in my heart and your beautiful soul will never be forgotten. I Love You.

“ I know we haven't been in touch in a while, but I thought about you all the time. It's hard to believe you are gone. I know that when people leave this earth any and everybody has something to say and think it is the polite thing to do to say nothing but nice things. even when it's not deserved. But all the nice and kind words sent your way are well deserved. You were a true friend from the beginning and I will never forget that! Love you girlie! Fly high and take your rest!

Ps.-Just wish you could have stayed a little longer so we could reconnect!
