

Veleria "Coosee" Orndorff Cleveland

December 14, 1941 - March 17, 2026

Veleria "Coosee" Orndorff Cleveland was born December 14, 1941 in Shelbyville, Tennessee to Fred Orndorff and Vera Tillman Orndorff. She was lovingly raised by Randolph and Kate Smith, her mother's sister. Affectionately known as "Coosee," she was a woman of strength, warmth, and deep love for her family and community.

She was especially known for her gift of doing hair. People came from near and far to sit in her kitchen and get their curls just right. With her Marcel curling irons, she would make them spin in a circle, the handles making a click-clacking sound as she worked her magic.

On April 5, 1959, she married her true love, L.D. Cleveland, and from this union five children were born: Denyce Batts, Vickey Cleveland, Falita Cleveland, Veronica Cleveland, and Vance Cleveland. She also leaves to cherish her memory one bonus daughter, Jessie Marie (Terry) Norman of Murfreesboro, Tennessee.

She was a proud grandmother to Devon Cleveland, Chasity (Terrell) Smith, Miles Wilson, Airius Trice, Zion Cleveland, Ayleria Cleveland, and Yuriah Cleveland.

She was also blessed with great-grandchildren: Erica Chilton, Kade Cleveland, Alivia Cleveland, and Christian Smith. Veleria was deeply loved and had an exceptional love for her husband's nieces and nephews: Deborah (John) King, Sara (Calvin) Settles, and Jerry and Billy Cleveland. She was preceded in death by her parents, Fred Orndorff and Vera Tillman Orndorff; her brother, Nathan "Bubba" Orndorff; and her beloved caregivers, Randolph and Kate Smith.

She is survived by her niece, Cheryl Orndorff, and her nephew, Nathan Orndorff Jr.

She is also survived by her loving first cousins: Martha Olivia Tillman, Lawson Tillman, Shelia Tillman Holder-Williams, Charles Edward "Bubba" Tillman, Wanda Tillman, Shalanda Stokes Rabadan, Ronald Tillman, and Sidney Williams, along with a host of other cherished cousins. She also leaves behind her devoted friend and sister, Barbara Draine. Veleria "Coosee" Cleveland leaves behind a legacy of love, strength, and cherished memories.
