“ He was a great human being? His love for animals was more than people at times. He derailed our marriage, but there were no hard feelings at his passing him and Judy had talked almost on a daily basis! I forgive him forgive him for what he did to our Marriage and the pretty scar I carry on my face that reminds of him on a. Daily basis, that water under the bridge. he a new child of god and fed been forgiven , I forgave him many years ago so I could go on with my life!!!! I him to god 15 years ago !!!!! I'll see him in heaven some day rest in peace my friend an ex husband my best wist for Tammy and the rest of the family, you have been in my prayers!!!!!!!!!!!!my best heart felt wishes and prayers, Tammy ferrell

“ Anne (White-Scruggs) and I (Bob) remember William with fondness. He helped us for many years at the Webb Art and Craft Festival. He was so dependable, but most of all his pleasant disposition made things easier for everyone. He was one of the first showing up for work, and one of the last to leave. We regret so much to hear of his passing. But we do count on the Good Book's verse which tells us "And God shall wipe away every tear." God bless you, William, and your family.
